

Thursday 1 | Cameroon – Pray for church leaders who continue to serve vulnerable communities despite the ongoing attacks of Boko Haram. Pray for the Lord's protection over these shepherds and that they will be a bright light amidst terrifying darkness engulfing this region of Cameroon.

Friday 2 | Laos – Pray for 40 young believers still traumatized after their Christian camp was interrupted by authorities. Pray that God would transform fear into resilience.

Saturday 3 | Myanmar – This month marks the Buddhist holiday of Thadingyut (Festival of Lights). It's also a time when pressure increases for believers from a Buddhist background. Ask God to protect them in this difficult time.

Sunday 4 | Cuba – Pastor Sairo* wants you to know that God is still working, even in devastation. "We trust in God's promises," he declares. Pray for him today.

Monday 5 | Burkina Faso – Pray with Pastor Michée from Burkina Faso. His father, brothers and members of his church community were killed in a brutal attack targeting Christians. He reminds us: "Your prayers are highly important to us. Pray for us to keep faith in God. For me to always be devoted in my ministry until the end."

Tuesday 6 | Chad – Meet Samira*, a 23-year-old Christian mother in Chad. She is ostracized for following Jesus. She asks us to pray for her children that they would know Christ.

Wednesday 7 | Bangladesh – Recently, a group of extremist Muslims came to a pastor's shop and told him that as a Christian, he would not be allowed to continue his business there. He asks us to pray for wisdom.

Thursday 8 | Nigeria – Pray for strength with the family of Nigerian Pastor Gbenga Sanny. He was kidnapped from his home. His family escaped, but his children witnessed their father's abduction.

Friday 9 | Burkina Faso – Pray with Pastor Bandiba (pictured below) in eastern Burkina Faso. After a deadly attack, the church that numbered more than 700 people is starting over in a new location. Pray that God would redeem and restore.

Saturday 10 | Sub-Saharan Africa – Pray for families who are now displaced and uncertain about their futures. May they find a place to stay and be protected from any harm.

Sunday 11 | Iran – Praise God with Mustafa*, an Iranian Christian. His asylum petition was denied. He spent the night praying, and the next day learned his case had been accepted after all. "Lord, you are the One who gives the final judgment," he shares.

Monday 12 | Bangladesh – Our field has requested prayer for 29 women's discipleship classes. At least one was forced to shut down due to extremist threats. Ask God to strengthen their faith through this adversity.

Tuesday 13 | Mali – Christians face violence and displacement at the hands of groups associated with Islamic State and al-Qaeda. Pray for believers who risk everything because of their faith in Christ.

Wednesday 14 | Syria – Dozens of Christians in Syria started or expanded their small businesses with support from Open Doors' local partner in the country. Pray that their businesses will flourish and help them to support their family.

Thursday 15 | Sudan – Ask God to bring about a peaceful resolution to the civil war and help the church to be peacemakers. Pray for the future of the church in Sudan and wisdom for leaders. Even if a peaceful resolution comes, neither party is favourable towards the church.

Friday 16 | Somalia – Somalia is traumatized, and Christian Somalis more so. Pray that God's Spirit will minister to them and that He will bring healing to their minds and spirits.

Saturday 17 | Kyrgyzstan – Pray with Pastor Dmitry Golovin, whose church is under constant watch. Ask God to place people in his path to encourage and uphold him.

Sunday 18 | Syria – Many Syrian Christians say they want to leave the country when they get the chance. Pray that many will remain in Syria and feel called to serve their Lord in the country where they were born—and that those who leave will continue to follow Jesus and pray for their home country of Syria.

Monday 19 | Kenya – We thank God for believers who, despite the constant danger of attack, remain in the coastal areas of Kenya and live out their faith. Pray that God will continue to strengthen them and provide for them so that they can be a bright light for the Gospel. Pray that their witness will draw many to Christ and for there to be peace in this part of Kenya that can be strategic in reaching many Somalis with the truth and hope of Jesus Christ.

Tuesday 20 | Nigeria – The first half of 2026 has proven to be devastating for God's people living in northwestern Nigeria. Pray that all those who are grieving the loss of loved ones martyred or abducted for their faith will know God's promise — that He is "near to the broken-hearted."

Wednesday 21 | North Korea – Most of the nation's believers have never held a complete copy of the Bible. Pray that God's Word will continue to find its way into hands, minds and hearts.

Thursday 22 | Laos – Pray for protection over several upcoming trainings led by Open Doors' local partners. Pray for believers as they learn how to live faithfully among non-believing communities.

Friday 23 | Vietnam – The decision for Sung A Pao* and his family to embrace Jesus meant the loss of relationships and the land they used to sustain them. "Please pray that we may serve God," he says.

Saturday 24 | Bangladesh – "I will not compromise my 27 years of faith—even if I have to die for it, says Anish*. In front of at least ten Muslims, he boldly shared his faith. "Pray that God will bring peace," he asks.

Sunday 25 | Sub-Saharan Africa – Pray with believers in sub-Saharan Africa who continue to ask us to pray that their faith and testimony amidst persecution would be a light for Christ.

Monday 26 | Central Asia – Pray with churches and their leaders who must minister and act, knowing they're under police surveillance. Pray for daily strength.

Tuesday 27 | Nigeria – Pastor Josiah lost his wife and three sons in extremist attacks in Nigeria. He asks us to pray this prayer with him: "Lord, be our encourager ... be ever close to us."

Wednesday 28 | Turkmenistan – Police carried out raids around the only Christian church in Balkanabat city. At least 50 Turkmen citizens were taken away for questioning. Pray with believers living under oppression.

Thursday 29 | Cuba – Praise God with Pastor Abdiel* today. He serves a rural mountainous area where communities are scattered. Your support provided a motorcycle, allowing him to minister to multiple churches. Thank you!

Friday 30 | Cameroon – Pray for Christians who are traumatized because of the ongoing attacks in the far north of Cameroon. Pray that in community they will find healing, forgiveness for those who have caused them pain, and live a life unrestrained from trauma so that they can be salt and light in their communities.

Saturday 31 | Burkina Faso – Pray for comfort with the families of two young ministry leaders, Jeremia and Amadou, in eastern Burkina Faso. The two men were killed when extremists entered the church.
